

OFFICIAL RULES

Mexico – March 2025

CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATING IN RENDEZVOUS iA 2025:

- Only persons who are qualified or invited may participate.
- The trip and everything that comes with it must be accepted as is and may not be exchanged or sold for cash.
- Invitations are personalized and non-transferable.
- Participants in the Rendezvous agree to be present at all official activities scheduled in the program. Note that only these activities are offered to you at no expense. The personal activities that you can do during the free time scheduled at various times during the trip are at your own expense.

DATE

- The official dates of the event will be announced in 2024.

GUEST

- If you invite a guest, they must be age 18 or older at the time of travel. Participants may not bring their children, including babies under 12 months. If your guest is not your spouse, your guest cannot be a member of your team who is not qualified for the Rendezvous.

T4

- After the event, the company will issue tax slips for the year of the event in an amount totalling the expenses related to an attendee and their guest, in the name of the attendee under contract with the Company. The taxable amount will be based on the actual costs incurred by iA Financial Group for these activities, in accordance with the tax laws then in effect. The estimated amounts will be included in your invitation.

FLIGHTS

- If you choose to book your own flights:
 - You will receive a total financial compensation of $600 per person, provided that you participate in all Rendezvous activities.
 - This amount will be included on your T4 for both you and your guest.
- The selected airports are Quebec City, Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.
- For the 1st Class and Elite levels, you will have to choose from the flights we have selected.

EXTENDED STAY

- It will be possible to indicate your intentions to extend your stay when completing your registration form.

GIFTS

- The gifts offered as part of the Rendezvous are reserved for those attending.
